Run promotional drawings without the hassle and expense of printing physical tickets with IGT® Virtual Drawing Manager. (VDM)

VDM automates casino drawings by allowing properties to efficiently and securely issue virtual tickets to their players. Drawings are now easier to monitor, manage, and award.

Once players fulfill the qualifications, their accounts are automatically credited with the appropriate number of entries. Both free entries for attending and earned entries for coin-in are available. Players can choose which drawings to participate in and can redeem entries at kiosks or on the game using Service Window.

A user-friendly interface conducts the drawing by randomly selecting winners from the entry pool on the day of the drawing. Celebrate winners floorwide using plasmas and notify the winner directly on the machine via Service Window.

Benefits

- Reduce labor and lower the total cost of running drawing events
- Promote drawing winners floorwide, providing greater entertainment value
- Increase time on device by notifying winners directly on the game machine via Service Window
